

Wednesday, 25th March

12:00 - 13:00	Registration &amp; Snack - Kult-X
13:00 - 14:30	Polarization in Action: Elections – Theatre Hall
13:00	Maria Krempl – Pictures of You - Future Thinking and the Formation of Expectations in an Election Context
13:30	Max Kikken – Elections, Polarization, and the Dynamics of Moral Universalism
14:00	Oliver Feltham – Are preferences or actions more important in determining how prosocial we are? Evidence from UK politics
14:30 - 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 - 17:00	Information Transmission – Theatre Hall	Universalism, Equal Opportunity, and Inclusion – TWI Seminar Room
15:00	Stefan Schmidt – Social Identity and Selection Neglect	Daniele Caliori – The Anatomy of Preferences for Equal Opportunity
15:30	Yosuke Hashidate – Statistical Discrimination under Model Misspecification	Henrike Sternberg – Universalism in Redistribution Preferences
16:00	Mareike Petrosjan – Public communication about the energy transition - Experimental evidence for the effects of news framing on support for energy projects	Barnabás Bakucz – From Shared Ideals to Divided Policies: The Implementation Gap in Redistribution
16:30	Fabian Dvorak – Strategic Conformity in Moral Judgements	Prateek Bhan – Fostering Agency and Inclusion in Schools through Recognition and Reflection: Evidence from India
18:00 - 19:30	Nightwatcher’s Guided Tour
19:30	Dinner @ Konzil (at own expenses)

Thursday, 26th March

09:00 - 10:00	Universalism in Education – Theatre Hall	Political Identity – TWI Seminar Room
09:00	Pia Schilling – A Journey to Unity - A Teacher-led Preschool Program to Foster Social Cohesion	Jona Krutaj – Political tribalism and voter preferences
09:30	Christina Felfe – Childsteps towards Universalism - Roadblocks on the way	Paul Weingärtner – Beyond Partisanship: The Role of Groupishness for Affective Polarization
10:00 – 10:30	Coffee Break
10:30 - 12:00	Paternalism and Gender – Theatre Hall	Biases in Real-Life – TWI Seminar Room
10:30	Katharina Brütt – Far from free: How social proximity affects paternalism	Maïke Schlosser – Unveiling Bias in Legal Decision-Making: Evidence from Legal Education
11:00	Louis Strang – Autonomy, Interventions, and Gender	Regine Oexl – Nationalistic bias by amateur judges in professional telemark skiing
11:30	Caroline Baltzer – Unpacking Clinical Judgement: Bias or Best Practice in Medical Decisions? An Experimental Analysis of Gendered Decision Behavior in Swiss Primary Care	Amelie Wulff – Local Newspaper Closures and their Effect on Lending Discrimination
12:15 - 13:30	Lunch @ Alti Badi

Thursday, 26th March (continued)

Keynote 1 – Theatre Hall:
14:00 - 15:30	Keynote Erin L. Krupka
15:30 - 16:00	Coffee Break
16:00 – 17:30	Public Goods in Polarization – Theatre Hall	(Post-)Conflict – TWI Seminar Room
16:00	Philipp Chapkovski – Ethical AI in Recommendations: A Public Good Dilemma	Katharina Werner – The Impact of Digital Contact on Social Cohesion: A Controlled Experiment in a Post-Conflict Setting
16:30	Kjell Arne Brekke – Why morally motivated public good provision can lead to polarization and minimal contributions	Cristina Figueroa Sisniega – When the Past Becomes Political: Narratives, Memory, and Identity
17:00	Johann Graf Lambsdorff – Cooperation in polarized worlds: Group competition need not rely on reciprocal benefits	Moti Michaeli – Interpersonal Trust During Times of Political Unrest: The Curious Case of the Neutrals
18:30	Conference Dinner @ Alti Badi

Friday, 27th March

09:00 - 10:30	(Towards) Solving the Political Problem – Theatre Hall
09:00	Arne Weiss – Breaking the Gridlock: Zero-Sum Thinking, Identity and Mutually Beneficial Reforms
09:30	Christian Feige – On propaganda-resistant voting procedures and their effect on voter polarization
10:00	Giacomo Lanzani – Nonlinear Fixed Points and Stationarity: Economic Applications
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee Break
Keynote 2 – Theatre Hall:
11:00 - 12:30	Keynote Gabriele Spilker